REVIVAL MEETING AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH RESUMED

The revival meetings that tried to close at the Christian church Monday night were resumed Thursday on account of the deep interest manifested. There was a fine week night crowd at the Thursday night service. One young man confessed his faith in Christ and three were baptized at the close of the service. Meeting was announced for Friday night at 7:15. There will be no Saturday night service. The revival will be brought to a definite close Sunday night so far as nightly meetings are concerned but it is hoped and believed that the revival spirit and work will go on and on. Everybody cordially invited to all services.

Advanced Art of Motion Picture Direction is Reached in New Film.

"The Oath," the photoplay which opens today at the Washington Theater, is a revelation in the art of the motion picture. In it R. A. Walsh, who produced and directed it for the Mayflower Photoplay Corporation for distribution by Associated First National Pictures, Inc., has obtained two intensely dramatic effects which have been marked by critics as being important advances in the art of motion picture direction.

The first is giving the audience a distinct effect of having witnessed a tragedy without ever showing the actual event itself. The second scene which is regarded as notable is the entire lack of confusion in putting over the most dramatic incident ever shown in a motion picture. Rather than attempt to show the effect of the action on the crowd that witnesses it, Mr. Walsh has chosen close views of the emotions of the various characters most vitally affected by the result that the climax of the court room scene in "The Oath" is as gripping a piece of screen art as has ever been produced.

"The Oath" is an adaptation of the William J. Locke widely read novel "Idols." Miriam Cooper heads the cast which portrays the story under the skillful direction of Mr. Walsh, and in the support are Conway Tearle, Henry Clive and Anna Q. Nilsson.

EASTERN DISTRICT WAREHOUSE ORGANIZATION IS FORMED

Organization is Completed for the Control of Pooled Warehouses in This District.

The Eastern District Warehouse Corporation, the subsidiary corporation of the Burley Co-operative Association was organized here Thursday. Mr. J. M. Flach, of Helena Station, was elected president; Mr. E. G. Downing, of Washington Vice President, and Mr. James A. Kehoe, Secretary. The executive committee appointed consisted of Mr. Flach, Mr. Downing, and Mr. E. F. Boyd, of Maysville. The general excellence of the above named men as well as their reputations in this section augurs well for the ultimate outcome of the corporation.

The directors forming the corporation were: H. L. Corliss, of Brooksville, representing Bracken county; B. H. Goodpasture, of Owensboro, acting for Bath; J. W. Strother, Grayson, here as the representative of Carter and Greenup; Chas. Rudder, of Ribolt, for Lewis; Wm. Highland, Mt. Sterling, serving for Montgomery; J. W. Neal, of Evans, representing Fleming and Chambers Perry, of Mt. Olivet, from Robertson. In addition to these there were four representatives from Mason consisting of Ben H. Marshall, E. G. Downing, J. M. Flach and E. F. Boyd, Jr. The above named directors represent nine out of ten counties making up this district. Unfortunately the Nicholas county director was not present. Every member of this directorate is a member of the association. Among their number are three bankers and they are all farmers. Certainly a board that will be very careful so far as the interests of the grower are concerned.

The capital stock of this corporation will be $685,110.00. Without question one of the largest businesses in this section of Kentucky. Headquarters will be located at Maysville. The co-operative association definitely states in the contract that this subsidiary corporation will be operated strictly on a non-profit basis. It will issue the necessary warehouse receipts to the association and carry on whatever other business necessary to the best interest of the grower who has pooled.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY TAKES CHARGE TAYLOR INVESTIGATION

Four Men and a Woman Are Being Searched for by Officials in Effort to Throw Light on Murder of Movie Director.

Los Angeles, Feb. 10. — The field of suspects in the Taylor murder mystery had narrowed down today to four men and "Miss X," a mysterious and unidentified woman.

Force of law tracking the murderer of the director have been combined under a single head to concentrate on these suspects. Random clues, reports of William Desmond Taylor's past life and love affairs, letters, handkerchiefs, all were consolidated today into a single mass of evidence.

Thomas Lee Woolwine, district attorney, assumed leadership today of the various agencies searching for Taylor's slayer. All new evidence unearthed will be placed at his disposal. In this way the authorities hope to forge ahead through conflicting masses of evidence and to penetrate the maze of mystery thrown around the killing of the director until they emerge on the clear trail of the guilty person.

From today according to Woolwine, the district attorney's office will conduct a comprehensive survey of the entire case. Taylor's servants, persons in the neighborhood who saw a muffled man in a cren on the night of the murder, all will be subpoenaed by grand jury, if necessary, to tell once more and more completely everything they know which may have the slightest bearing on the mystery.

The district attorney planned to begin today with Mabel Normand and Mary Miles Minter, actresses whose names have been mentioned most prominently in the case, not because they are suspects, but because of their friendship with Taylor.

FREE SERVICE TO TOBACCO GROWERS

It is absolutely necessary that the members of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association preserve carefully their Participation Certificates in order to draw the balance of the money due on their crops. The Bank of Maysville has opened a new filing system for the care and safe keeping of these certificates, and all members of the association are invited and urged to deposit their certificates with that bank. These certificates are kept in its fire and burglar proof vault, and are given the same attention as Liberty Bonds. They are very valuable papers and should be well taken care of. Each individual's certificate is put in a separate envelope on which appears his name and the number of his certificate.

The Bank of Maysville is instituting this additional service as an accommodation to the members of the Association. By this and many other means, this bank has and still is endeavoring to help the association in every way it possibly can.

The big vault of the Bank of Maysville is the largest and most modern in this section of the country and the generous offer of that bank to take care of these certificates, free of charge, should be taken advantage of by every member of the association, no matter where they live or do their banking business. Do not put your certificates where they may be lost, stolen or burned up. Take them to the Bank of Maysville today. 8-31

OUR POLICY:

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the county as a whole.

THE PEOPLE AND COAL.

In less than eighty days the coal industry—that industry which makes possible heat and light and the turning of the wheels of transportation and manufacture—may be divided into two armed camps.

Specifically the wage scale contracts between the operators and miners in the unionized fields, which produce approximately 70 per cent of the output, and throughout the anthracite fields, expire on April 1, 1922. Within the past two weeks the preliminary arrangements necessary to a conference for the discussion of terms and scales have been stopped.

The leading officials of the United Mine Workers of America have repeatedly declared that they would resist any wage reduction, and the operators hold grimly to their resolve not to renew the existing wage contracts. In other words, the coal industry faces an impasse which may end in the closing down of the mines and resultant disorder.

And what of the public's interest? What does the public know of this situation? And what is the public going to do about it?

We have short memories. It is only natural that the little affairs of our daily life should engross our attention to the exclusion of such apparently alien subjects as miners' wages and operators' profits and freight rates and wages. The intricate details of transportation and mining are beyond the mental horizon of most of us. Yet the foundation of personal and national existence must be regarded in terms of heat and power.

With this undoubted fact in mind there is only one declaration for the general public to make, only one resolution:

There shall be no stoppage of transportation! There shall be no stoppage of fuel production! There shall be no interruption of any other utility that vitally affects the welfare and prosperity of the people.—From Industry.

BUSINESS IN GOVERNMENT.

Counting the millions to be saved on naval armament when the Washington agreements are embodied in treaties, we are apt to forget the early pledge of the Harding Administration to cut expenses by "putting business into Government." A reminder is furnished by the report that preliminary plans of the departmental reorganization committee, now in the President's hands, promise a saving of not less than three hundred millions a year.

The saving of approximately a million dollars a day, for every working day in the year, cannot be made without a drastic overlapping of the executive departments. There is much wasteful overlapping, which should be easy to correct, as a result of the growth of the organization since the Government was founded without that guiding direction which controls the evolution of a business system. But some parts will have to be dug up by the roots. The most noteworthy feature of the plans, at outlined, is the consolidation of the War and Navy departments in a Department of National Defense. But in the aggregate, no doubt, rearrangements and consolidations among many divisions and bureaus will work the most effective results.

It is to be anticipated that the more radical proposals will meet with criticism, objection, perhaps aggressive opposition. The Cabinet heads must be brought into agreement, although as a matter of authority Congress may order any rearrangement it chooses. It is not to be doubted however, that the President will be supported by his official family in his purpose to put through a thoroughgoing reorganization, and Congress should not question details too closely so long as what is offered will reach the main objective.—Providence Journal.

HENRY FORD'S NEW FAD.

Henry Ford announces the suspension of his attacks on the Jews, a tardy acknowledgement that he was on the wrong tack. He did great injury to a race which in many respects is an example to all others. But it is impossible to keep a good man down, and Mr. Ford is out for a new strike, a proposal to abolish gold and silver as a monetary basis and substitute an abstraction which he calls "human energy." When the project is examined what it comes down to concretely is our old friend, fiat currency, issued by the government and inconvertible.

"History," Henry Ford declared some time ago, "is bunk." Such persons invent their own history as they go along, and so comes about the proverb that history repeats itself. The old errors and illusions are revived by peoples ignorant of the experience of the past and of the penalties of fallacious theories when put into practice. The delusion of irredeemable money has infected society for centuries, and with every generation Henry Fords pop up, ignorant of history, dismissing it as bunk, and repeating the old costly mistakes, which a knowledge of the past would enable them to avoid.

Henry Ford has startled the country from time to time by vagaries, such as his vicious attacks upon the Jewish race, his peace mission, his contempt for history, and now his fiat money propaganda, delusions that are surprising in a man so useful, efficient, and successful in his chosen line, a matter that he knows "from the ground up." He is an example of the danger of no learning outside of his speciality.

Fortunately the American people twenty-five years ago, when Henry Ford's back was turned, went through a campaign of education non rotten money that has served the country well ever since.—Topeka Capital.

Everything which points to prosperity for the American mercantile marine is to be welcomed. The Eastern Director of the United States Shipping Board reports that the outlook is better than it has been for many months; that the board is putting more vessels into operation than it is withdrawing, and that ten ships are held in readiness constantly for use whenever or wherever they may be required. He adds: "It is too early to say that there is a revival of shipping, but prospects are certainly brighter." Normal conditions have been fully restored, but there certainly is ground for believing that the American people are determined that the American ship shall hold a prominent place in international trade.—Troy Times.

Mr. Wilson will come back if he can, and the Democratic party may have to take him. But it would prefer somebody who speaks its language. The Democratic party always was a little uncomfortable in Mr. Wilson's presence.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

DEATHS CAUSED

BY VENEREAL DISEASES LARGE

Health Authorities of Nation Have Much Trouble in Getting Reports on Diseases.

Washington, D. C.—It must be evident even to the layman, says a report published by the U. S. Public Health Service, that the damage done by venereal disease is enormous. Unfortunately, concealment is so general that there is little dependable information yet available in regard to important facts.

For improvement in reporting cases, and in giving true causes of death, reliance must be had on the efforts of workers in the syphilitic field. They must, says the Public Health Service, become missionaries in popularizing the reporting required by law. Half the physicians in the country have agreed to co-operate with the State Boards of Health in this respect and the great majority of the other half would fall in line if they were convinced that co-operation would protect their patients and that it was really wanted by the community. This would give much desired information as to the real prevalence of venereal diseases.

Meanwhile, in order to acquire at least a part of this desired knowledge the Public Health Service suggests that physicians whose practice has brought them into contact with large numbers of syphilitic patients over long periods of time send to some central office the histories of their patients from the time of infection, through the period of treatment, to dismissal through death or efficient recovery.

Possibly, says the service, many physicians will be ready to turn over valuable accumulated material of this character. Army and Navy medical records should also be valuable, for both contain large numbers of records of infection of personnel. Combined study of these should disclose the ac-

The following case is but one of many occurring daily in Maysville. It is an easy matter to verify it. You cannot ask for better proof. Jno. T. Bramel, retired bookkeeper, 108 West Front street, Maysville, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been of great advantage to me and I contribute fourteen years of my life to them. It was some years ago that I found I had kidney trouble and suffered severely with it. After a long course of Doan's Kidney Pills I became well and had no trouble for many years. Just recently I noticed my kidneys were again out of order and my system was generally weak. I knew it was a return of the trouble. I did not lose any time in getting a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and they have given me the same good results and I consider them a wonderful remedy." (Statement given November 15, 1916.)

On November 22, 1920, Mr. Bramel said: "I couldn't recommend a better remedy than Doan's Kidney Pills after the benefit they were to me when I was about down and out with the worst form of kidney trouble. I gave a statement many years ago regarding the merit of this wonderful remedy. My cure has been a lasting one." Price 60 cents, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Bramel had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

tual mortality from syphilis and the impairments, or sequelae, which have resulted from it. A large series of records might conceivably show a fairly constant relationship between syphilitic infection and aneurisms, locomotor ataxia, general paralysis, organic heart disease, and other conditions. For such a study a large number of cases, widely distributed and checked by statistical requirements of age, sex, and race, would be necessary. The results should ultimately permit a true measure of syphilitic mortality to be obtained from the crude figures that are annually published.

New York Letter

by Lucy Jeanne Price

New York.—The "weakening effects of city life" are not always apparent.

Mrs. Helma Salton, of 129 East 130th street, seems to have about as much spunk and backbone as any rural heroine we ever knew. The other evening she surprised a burglar in her apartment. Then she surprised him still more! So instead of running for help, she chased him downstairs and into the rear yard. She stood on a barrel there and watched him as he climbed fences in his frightener flight, so that when the police arrived she was able to direct the pursuit. And he was captured.

Oil on stormy waters is a poor ineffectual thing along side of the power of the stork to calm the tempests, according to the sincere conviction of all aboard the lined Hellig which landed here the other day. It was a stormy Atlantic that the Hellig had crossed — everywhere except immediately in the region of that liner. Storms raged all about her, but the Hellig steamed through pleasant seas, from the time she left her native fjord in Copenhagen. No one could understand it, until little Yanesi Kaezylinski was announced as a new passenger aboard when the liner had been out two days. The conditions remained the same. The Hellig was in a pocket of calm all the way across while typhoons and everything else raged on all sides. Captain L. F. Peronard insists that it is a respect fact that the storms pay deference to the stork in just this way over and over again.

Every once in a while a new film production appears which is really worth comment in any news of the myriads of activities which start in New York City and thread their way through the whole country. When there is such a one, I like to mention it—as you probably have noticed. The other day, I saw a film of particular interest and particularly well done. It is "The Grim Comedian," by Rita Weiman, whom I had always thought of as a short story writer, but whom I shall hereafter hold in my mind as a dramatist. It is a story of the stage—and not of the pleasant aspects of that behind-the-scenes world. But its handling saves it from being commonplace or sordid. A woman whose theatrical career has led her to receive benefactions from the hand of a wealthy, idling bachelor, faces the growth of the screen production is shock of seeing her own daughter the recipient of his favors. Phoebe Hunt, Jack Holt, John Harron and Gloria Hope make the characters human and unexaggerated and the director has accomplished the same sort of achievement with the whole drama. One of the best things about that at last we have there keen, true character analysis such as we used to think would always be the possession of the novel and the spoken drama exclusively. That is one reason that "The Grim Comedian" is worth seeing.

The vogue for fur trimmed coats for women has truly arrived after much prediction. Recent arrivals from Europe have brought them over and New York has stopped to admire and to adopt. Continental physicians say the fur-trimmed women, blame low shoes and sheer hose for the influenza epidemics (I don't know how they explain the men's having it) and consequently, women — if they must be sensible at all prefer to be sensible in the extreme. Woolen hosiery and wide-trimmed boots are the result.

The crowds at Thirty-third street and Broadway were held entranced the other noon by such music from the violin of a street player as they had never before heard in such surroundings. They really KNEW it was good. And it was. For it was Nahum Franko, New York's greatest American-born violinist, for 25 years concert master and director of the Metropolitan orchestra. But the crowd didn't know that. When he had finished, he passed the hat, and collected $17. He raised his hat and thanked the crowd for their contributions to the Hero Fund, and was gone. "I could have given the $17 myself with less effort, of course," he explained to some one who recognized him. But the whim struck me and I wanted to do it that way."

PUBLIC WORKS IS STARTED THROUGHOUT ENTIRE NATION
President's Unemployment Conference Has Stimulated Much City and County Work.

Among the outstanding results of the President's Conference on Unemployment is the vast amount of public works, chiefly state and municipal, which have already been started during the winter months to provide employment in the present business depression. This was one of the strongest recommendations of the conference when it met in Washington.

Talulations have been made and it is found that $450,000,000 is now available in the United States for local improvements. In response to letters sent out by Col. Arthur Woods, Chairman of the Emergency Committee, 80 per cent. of the communities affected have notified the conference that work is already in progress, or that it will be started before spring in order to provide local employment.

Many public works officials have notified the conference that they are awarding contracts only on condition that the work be prosecuted throughout the winter whenever weather conditions permit. Special preparations are also being made to carry on types of work not usually done in winter. "Wages paid for public works," said Col. Woods today, "will create a purchasing power for all kinds of commodities which will, in turn, require the employment of other groups to produce. The conference is keeping in close touch with contemplated public projects in order to ascertain exactly how much they may be relied upon to relieve unemployment during the critical winter months."

Henderson.—John Henshaw, Union county jailer, dropped dead in the court house at Morganfield, according to word received here. Death was due to heart trouble. Mr. Henshaw was sworn in January 2.

Lexington.—Admitting thefts from letters in the Lexington postoffice, Des W. Baber, 41, stamp clerk, was held by the federal grand jury under $1,000 bond. He was arrested by Postoffice inspectors V. R. Beck, Lexington, Lawrence Coleman, Danville, and George L. Seaton, London, on a charge of embezzlement of postal funds and robbery of the mails. He was committed to the Fayette county jail in default of bond. Baber was arrested through the efforts of Inspector Seaton, who had made use of a decoy letter. A check of Baber's stamp account following his arrest found him $68 short, according to Inspector Beck.

If You Tire Easily and Feel Run Down, You Need Gude's Pepto-Mangan.

All over the United States the health of the people is guarded carefully by Boards of Health. Yet with all that care and watchfulness a disease sometimes breaks out and spreads from home to home.

There is one safeguard that is preached by all physicians. That is to keep in good physical condition. Gude's Pepto-Mangan builds up the blood by increasing the number of red corpuscles. It is then able to fight disease germs and carry them off.

If you do not feel right, start today and take Gude's Pepto-Mangan. Keep on taking it and notice how much better you feel.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan is put up in both liquid and tablet form and is sold by druggists everywhere. The liquid and tablets have exactly the same medicinal value. Buy whichever you prefer. Be sure it is "Gude's Pepto-Mangan."—Advertisement.

1920 SCHOOL BILL KILLED BY HOUSE

Would Return Election of County Superintendent to People and Make It Political Office.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 10.—Opponents of the school legislation enacted in 1920 scored a decisive victory in the House of Representatives Thursday afternoon when a bill, restoring the election of the county school superintendent to the voters and providing for the nomination of teachers by the sub-district trustees was passed by a vote of 79 to 10.

The measure introduced by Representative W. M. Bolling of Meade county, chairman of the committee on education number 1, was amended so that county superintendents now holding office would be allowed to retain their positions, the first election being scheduled for 1925. Another amendment provided that the superintendent must approve of the teachers nominated by the trustees.

The bill was passed after an extended debate in which the present law, which has been in operation since January 1, was bitterly assailed by many of the members who spoke, while a few defended it. Several efforts to have the bill recommitted were voted down.

A. J. COLLINS DIES AT GEORGETOWN.

Georgetown, Ky., Feb. 9. — A. J. Collins, 75 years old, died this morning at 5:30 o'clock at the home of his son, H. H. Collins. Mr. Collins came to Scott county a number of years ago from Mason county, and was actively engaged in farming until his retirement from business. He is survived by his widow, who, before her marriage was Miss Martha Alice Ray, of Mason county; one daughter, Mrs. Wilfred Heebner, of Philadelphia, Pa.; three sons, Bassett Collins of Tucuman, New Mexico; Emerson C. Collins of Montreal, Canada, and H. H. Collins, of Georgetown; two brothers, John W. Collins and George W. Collins of Mason county. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

WOMAN'S ILLS MAKE UNHAPPY HOMES.

There is no question but what the ills of women conspire against domestic harmony. The husband cannot understand these troubles and the physician finds it hard to cure them; therefore the overworked wife and mother continues to drag around day in and day out with headaches and backache, fretful and nervous.

Such women should be guided by the experience of women whose letters we are continually publishing in this paper. Many of them declare that they have been restored to health, strength and consequent happiness by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after doctors and all other medicines had failed to help them. It will surely pay women who suffer from such ailments to try it.

DOG OWNERS WARNED AGAINST RABIES OUTBREAK.

A dog suffering from rabies was killed near Aberdeen, when fighting with other dogs. Following closely behind it was Walter White, Elmer Mitchell, its owner, and others. They had followed the dog over a territory of probably thirty miles. Starting near Manchester, the suffering animal had traveled to within five miles of Ripley, where it turned and went toward Aberdeen. In that distance it had fought and bit many dogs and immediately warning was given owners of what had happened and many were killed.

BEST POOLED CROP RECEIVED THURSDAY

Helenia Shilton (Crop Grades High — Advance of $15.30 is the Highest Yet.

Thursday's receiving line at the Farmers, Central and Home houses contained some exceptionally good crops. Among them was that raised by Mr. Ing Rice on Mr. L. L. Brough of Helena Station. This crop weighed 3995 pounds and graded to an average of $15.30 the highest average yet received. Its excellence was indeed a credit to its growers. Another splendid crop was that of Mr. C. C. Reese and Mr. J. W. Doyle, of the Mayslick neighborhood. It was a large delivery amounting to 5500 pounds but even the average was well over $12.00. This means a great deal for such a sized lot of the weed.

A few good crops were worthy of special mention today. Among those being two delivered by Mr. Frazee Weaver of Dover, one of 2215 pounds averaging $10.85 and one of 2893 pounds averaging $10.50. Also the following: W. A. Hitt and J. R. Poe, 4014 pounds averaging $11.82.

WHICH

Do you think the most of? Your money or your life? When you get HELD UP, and don't have any money, then you are likely to get BEAT UP, for not having any. Keep a "COLT" or some kind of a gun within easy reach. Once in every man's life you'll need a gun. Those who have gone through it, know it. You should profit by their experience.

If we haven't the pattern you want we can get it for you on short notice.

During the month of January, we will deduct 10% from any make gun we sell or order for you. It's up to you.

We pay a license to sell Fire-arms and you don't have to worry about having a lot of red tape to come through with, all we require is a few strips of Green and the protection is yours.
